

Transparency In The reporting of Artificial INtelligence – the TITAN guideline

Year: 2025 | Citations: 614 | Authors: R. Agha, Ginimol Mathew, Rasha Rashid, Ahmed Kerwan, A. Al-Jabir

---

Abstract

The use of AI in research and the literature is increasing. The need for transparency is clear. Here we present a guideline to transparently reporting the use of AI in any manuscript in general. The guideline items cover; declaration, purpose and scope, AI tools and configuration, data inputs and safeguards, human oversight and verification, bias, ethics and regulatory compliance and reproducibility and transparency. This guide will evolve over time as technology, systems and behaviour evolve.